Just a short drive to Rancho Palos Verdes, Terranea is the gift of tranquility removed from all of the hustle and bustle of the big city. Nestled into the resort's 102-acre secluded peninsula, you enter an island surrounded by the serene waves of the Pacific Ocean featuring views of Catalina Island. A Mediterranean getaway, Terranea allows you to unwind as the rooms, suites and residential bungalows (Casitas and Villas) come equipped with luxurious amenities. The resort also features an exquisite spa and award-winning nine-hole, par-three golf course, ocean-view swimming pools and several restaurants, bars and cafes to tend to all of your holiday needs.
