

Eight Mother's Day Trips That Will Spoil Mom

One day never seems long enough to fully fete all the mothers in our lives. However, when Mother's Day rolls around, why not make the most of it by celebrating in style? From a Wine Country escape and a girls getaway to over-the-top spa experiences and lavish brunches, here are eight ways you can honor Mom at luxury hotels this year.

Terranea Resort

Celebrate Mom with a luxury getaway at Terranea Resort. The Forbes Travel Guide Four-Star hotel on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, just 30 miles outside of Los Angeles, has everything she could ask for, including a 50,000-square-foot spa and eight restaurants, bars, cafés and lounges. Kick off her special day with a Mother's Day Ballroom Brunch complete with an omelet and egg station, risotto station, carving station, dessert buffet and free-flowing sparkling wine — not to mention the breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean and Catalina Island.

Terranea Resort