Breakfast in bed is always a good idea, whether it's for Mother's Day or not. Given that no one does it quite as well as hotels do, we asked five professionals at top resorts to weigh in with their best tips for recreating a decadent breakfast in bed from the comforts of our own homes.

Terranea Resort

1. Focus on Comfort: "For breakfast in bed, comfort is key," says executive chef Bernard Ibarra. "The guest should feel like royalty and be completely spoiled."

2. Appeal to All the Senses: "The smell of freshly baked goods should fill the room and awaken all senses, creating the ultimate wake-up call," Ibarra adds. "The sight of the fresh juice and steaming food should excite the guest, [as] the delicious taste will only be a part of the experience."
