HOLIDAY FAMILY ACTIVITIES GUIDE

HOLLYWOOD INSPIRED FUN CAMPS

Tapping into its long history as a favorite Hollywood film location, Terranea is launching a series of movie industry-themed camps for children, tweens and teens as part of its unique programming for younger guests. Debuting this winter, the camps include movie production, video game creation, Jedi training, fencing and fashion design. The first camps begin December 19.

Movie Production (Grades 7-10), $495

Movie production is the perfect camp for anyone interested in making their own movies. Coordinated by Planet Bravo, a company specializing in multimedia education for students ages 5 to 16, this class takes students through the process of movie creation from development through production.

Video Game Creation (Grades 4-6), $495

Also coordinated by Planet Bravo, this class teaches students how to make their own interactive video game. Students start the course with a blank white stage and fill it with original characters, sets and props.

Fashion Camp (Ages 8-16), $600-750

Terranea's fashion camp is led by Jill Ohanneson, a graduate of the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in Los Angeles and veteran TV and film costume designer with shows like Trauma, Six Feet Under, Swingtown and Lie to Me among her credits. Ohanneson introduces participants to the world of fashion design and even allows them to put their creativity to the test by fashioning their own designs.

Jedi Training Camp (Ages 4-12), $500

In partnership with Swordplay Studio in Burbank, Terranea presents Jedi training camp. Campers create their own Jedi character and develop their balance and coordination through fun Jedi training games, practice flight simulation (courtesy of Nintendo and Playstation), study of astronomy and lessons in how to wield a lightsaber.

Fencing Camp (Ages 7-16), $380

Campers are introduced to one of Hollywood's favorite art forms- fencing! Students receive instruction in footwork and technique, take part in fencing drills and games, learn about the history of fencing and even compete in an in-class fencing tournament.

Each camp is five days long and runs from 9 am to 3 pm each day.

Upcoming dates include:

2009 Camps: December 19-23 and December 26-30
(except Jedi and Fencing camps)

FAMILY TRADITIONS AT TERRANEA

A collection of holiday activities that capture our unique setting and history while bringing out the holiday spirit in everyone.

Fridays and Saturdays throughout December & Daily December 18th to 27th.

Tadpole Adventure Camp

For children ages 2-4, the Tadpole Adventure Camp is an introduction to a camp setting with oversized activity, creative play, and group games for our pre-adventure age explorers.

*Fridays and Saturdays throughout December & Daily December 18th to January 3rd

$15 per person*

Sunset Ritual and Lighting of the Menorah

Join us at sunset on the terrace of the Lobby Lounge for the ringing of the crystal singing bowls and lighting of the menorah. This ancient ritual known for healing and relaxation through sound and vibration combines the powers of sound and quartz crystal (similar to the crystals found in the caves here at Terranea) to produce a magnificent vibrating sound which resonates within the energy centers –or chakras – in the body. The pure sounds of the crystal resonate to bring harmony and well-being to all who hear its beautiful sound.

December 11th to December 18th in the Lobby Terrace at 4:45pm
