

Luxurious Spa Treatments to Enhance Your California Vacation

Rejuvenate your mind, body, and spirit at one of four world class Destination Hotel & Resorts' spas in Southern California

Destination Hotels and Resorts

The copper tub at Terranea Resort, with views of the rocky Pacific Coast in Palos Verdes.

If pampering yourself is on your list of things to do while on vacation in Southern California, you'll want to stop by the spas at the Destination Hotels & Resorts. You can enjoy their services whether a guest of the hotel or not, but as long as you are pampering yourself, you might as well stay the night in one of the luxurious rooms at Terranea, Paradise Point, Miramonte, or L'Auberge Del Mar (your body and mind will thank you!).

Click here to see the Luxurious Spa Treatments to Enhance Your California Vacation \(Slideshow\)

Award winning treatments designed to reflect your own wellness needs are available at each of these diverse locations: Miramonte in Indian Wells (near Palm Springs), L'Auberge in the seaside town of Del Mar, Paradise Point on an island near San Diego, and Terranea on the rocky Pacific Coast in Palos Verdes. You can experience spa treatments that are unique to each property and are unlike any other you've had before, and leave feeling like your spa experience was a magnificent as the scenery surrounding you at your resort.

Slideshow: Luxurious Spa Treatments to Enhance Your California Vacation \(Slideshow\)

Whether you are looking for a massage in an oceanfront room, overlooking the blue waves and sandy beach, body treatments such as a salt scrub exfoliation, or to just soak in a hydrotherapy tub filled with a combination of wine and rosemary oil, these four Destination Hotels & Resorts Southern California locations can offer you the spa pampering vacation.

To get a peek into each of the four different spas and what they have to offer, click through our slideshow here.

<http://www.thedailymeal.com/luxurious-spa-treatments-enhance-your-california-vacation/122713>