Spring holidays provide options for seaside bonding. Here are five beach destinations to consider:

1 Terranea Resort and Spa, Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif. Perched above the Pacific on 102 acres, the stunning views from this oceanfront oasis are reason enough for a visit. Check in and enjoy sea kayaking, strolling along the Discovery Trail, the Tide Pool Kids Club and a kid-friendly resort pool. There are plenty of family dining options on property, and the grown-ups might want to enjoy a romantic evening and take in the views from Mar'sel. A seaside spa and fitness facility provide coastal-inspired wellness options.
